

2018 Woolly Sisters Campout

Sun Valley, Idaho

Thursday, Oct 11 through Sunday,
October 14, 2018

We're going baaaaaaaaack to Sun Valley for the 22nd Anniversary of the Trailing of the Sheep.

Our basecamp will be circling the sheepwagons right in the heart of Ketchum at River Run Lodge parking area... Plan to glamp in any woolly way you wish - our colors are dark yellow and dark red, just the like changing leaves!

Fiber Class: Just as the Trailing of the Sheep Festival honors sheep and wool, we will do the same. More to come later this summer.

Saturday Sheepdog Trial: We have applied to again sponsor Zeb the sheepdog in the National Sheepdog Trials - we will present him with a dark yellow collar and bandana, so for our great photo, you will get your yellow bandana at camp from us. Zeb will try to herd just his own allotment, not the entire flock!

Sunday Trailing of the Sheep Parade Sunday morning we will walk to the parade route from camp, take in the parade, then those that want to head out on Sunday can do so, or stay longer!

This is dry camping. Fill up on water at McKenna Park in Hailey before coming up into Ketchum. Dump on Sunday is available at the same park in Hailey.

There is no electricity - bring lanterns and solar trailer lights. We plan to have a propane campfire! Porta potties will be available for our use only

BYOB, No kids, no men, well behaved dogs on leash allowed (dogs strictly not allowed at the parade)

Registration limited to the first 25 paid up. $57.00 per person for the weekend includes Friday dinner tickets, sheepdog sponsorship, Friday fiber class and materials and portapotties.

Cancellation Policy: This is a non-refundable event.
